

Training

Training the Future of Hospitality

High Quality Staff Recruited for Free Training

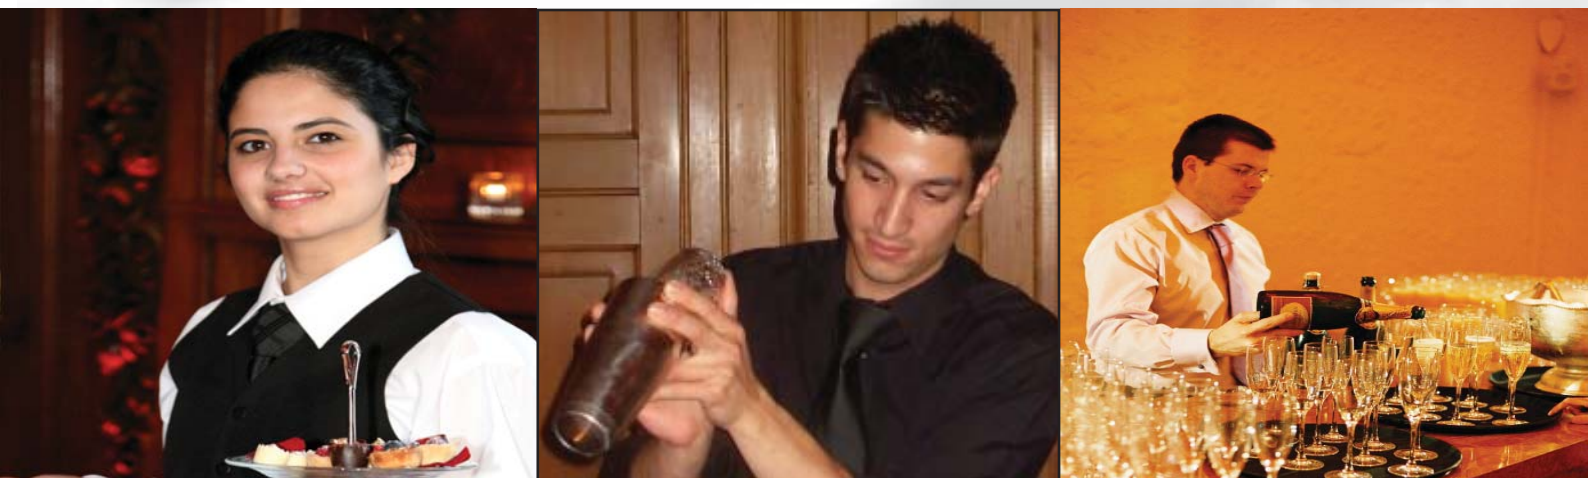

Off to Work's Training Academy has been developed over the last 9 years to counter this harder recruitment environment and assist people in making the next step up in their careers. We have developed a wonderful reputation as an industry leader within the hospitality industry with our training and experience of our internal team purely focused on this demanding but very fulfilling industry.

Training Guaranteed

We believe in ensuring that our training provides greater success and work enjoyment to our trainees in their jobs and careers. We truly understand that your success is our success with our business developing alongside the careers of our graduates. The more trusted we are to deliver both excellent training and support the more our graduates will return to us to further their career and the strength of their own team.

Benefits

Our success has been due to Off to Work's unique way of working which allows you to benefit in three different ways from our training. It not only gives you theoretical & practical skills and official accreditation but also provides you with a primary or secondary income stream through our casual work and also guarantees you an interview with a well-respected firm if you are unemployed or looking for a career move.

Training

Time to give yourself a service and get your career flying

Our training will also improve your standing within your existing role and allow you to break through glass ceilings above. The intensity of the training and the exceptional experience and standard of our trainers means that we can help you overcome any years experience of lacking and take your career forward.

Invest in yourself

The investment that you make in yourself through our training also continues to keep on giving once you have been through our courses. This includes free membership to our Alumni networking club and discounted offers on further training both for yourself and your work colleagues and friends.

Sometimes you have to give to receive

In addition to the high level of training that you will receive when you take one of our courses if you are using our training as a stepping stone in your career the majority of partners who we have agreements with to interview our graduates also sign covenants stating that once you have worked for 6 months or more you will receive the cost of the course directly back from them.

Training

Satisfaction Guaranteed

We understand that you are investing time and money in your future and we want it to work for you. This being the case if you are not happy with the standard of our training then we will offer you the opportunity to return and retake the training for free until you are.

Who are we?

Off to Work have been operating for over 9 years providing high-level trained staff to the hospitality industry. We have provided staff to the highest level of the industry from Buckingham Palace and The Dorchester Hotel to Zuma Restaurant. We are ISO 9001 Accredited and believe in ethical and professional working standards.

Support

All our operations and support team, from the payroll clerk to the Managing Director, have high-level hospitality experience. We understand the needs and wants of the industry and we listen to you in regards to the individual requirements of your business.

contact Steven now 020 7381 8222
training@offtowork.co.uk www.offtowork.co.uk

